FIGHT AGAINST BAILEY.

Opponents of Texas Senator May Carry It to Washington.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 25.—It is expected that the findings of the legislative committee investigation into the charges against United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey will be reported to the two houses of the legislature not later than Tuesday. Senator Bailey and his attorneys are urging upon the committee the need of haste as Senator Bailey announces he will leave Thursday in order to reach Washington by March 4 to be installed as senator.

It is also stated that some of the opponents of Senator Bailey in the legislature will make an effort to prolong the agitation against him even to the extent of taking the matter to Washington in the form of a memorial.

FIGHT FIERCE BATTLE

FORCES OF NICARAGUA INVADE
HONDURAS AND MEET WITH RESISTANCE.

NO DETAILS ARE OBTAINABLE

VAGUE CABLEGRAM FAILS TO GIVE PLACE OF CONFLICT AND RESULT THEREOF.

City of Mexico, Feb. 25.—Dr. Baltazar Estupinan, minister to Mexico from Salvador and Honduras, has received the following vague cablegram of eight words from the Honduras government:

"Nicaraguan forces have invaded Honduras. Fierce battle ensued."

When the battle was fought, where the encounter took place, what was the ultimate result of the reported struggle and how many were killed and wounded are left to conjecture.

This is the first word Dr. Estupinan has received from the government of Honduras for several days, although he has sent several cablegrams of inquiry.

No other Central American news has reached this capital during the past sixty-eight hours, although the details of a battle are hourly expected. It is believed in some circles that further news of the war will be gleaned here from Washington sources, as it is thought that capital from now on will be in closer touch with the region of active hostilities than Mexico City.

PROVOKED BY HONDURAS.

President Zelaya Tells Why Nicaragua
Went to War.

New York, Feb. 25.—The Associated Press has received the following dispatch from President Zelaya of Nicaragua:

"Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 25.—We went to war because Honduran forces attacked our small garrison on the frontier, looting, burning and killing. We demanded satisfaction and it was denied us; we agreed to accept whatever decision the arbitration court might render, but President Bonilla of Honduras dissolved the court by withdrawing the Honduran arbitrator.

"Nicaragua has triumphed in four combats over the Honduran forces without suffering one defeat. Our forces are today in the territory of Honduras."

SEEK ZELAYA'S DOWNFALL.

Disgruntled Nicaraguans Join the Forces of Honduras.

Panama, Feb. 25.—The mail has brought a proclamation signed at Choluteca, Honduras, by Generals Anastasio Oriz, Paulino Godey, Emiliano Chamorro, Benito Fecchevarria, Antonio Bustos and Rafael Hernandez, representing the various political opposition parties in Nicaragua, who are among the officers of the army of President Bonilla of Honduras. The proclamation is addressed to Central Americans and says that President Zelaya's downfall is an urgent necessity for the purification of the political situation in Nicaragua.

INDIAN DRUNK IS FATAL.

Three Burned in Their Tepee Near Winnipeg, Man.

Winnipeg, Man., Feb. 25.—A drunken carouser among Indians in a tepee on the outskirts of the city resulted in the death of three by burning. The victims were two men and a woman, Battece Prince, Geordie Kissias and Rose Smith. The others, the husband of the squaw and their boy, were badly burned.

The Indians were from the Brokenhead reservation. They came to Winnipeg, secured the liquor and all got drunk, with the result that their tepee caught fire.

It is likely the persons who supplied the liquor will be prosecuted, and the penalty is heavy.

BAPTIST CLERGYMAN KILLED.
Hanged Body Found Beside New York Central Railroad Track.

Westboro, Mass., Feb. 25.—The terribly mutilated and dismembered body of Rev. Dr. Everett D. Burr, a prominent Baptist clergyman of Newton, was found lying beside the tracks of the Boston and Albany division of the New York Central railroad near the Summer street bridge. The body was discovered by the crew of a Worcester bound freight train. The face was bruised beyond recognition, the skull was fractured, both arms were broken and both legs cut off. The clothing was torn to shreds.

Medical Examiner Charles S. Knight stated that death was due to accident. He said that the victim had undoubtedly fallen from a moving train while passing from one car to another, that his clothing had been caught by some portion of a train and the body dragged over the ties for about 400 feet, the blood on the sleepers indicating that the body had been dragged that distance.

Papers and a memorandum book found in the clothing gave the name of the victim. The body was frozen, showing that it had been beside the track for a number of hours. The memorandum book showed that Mr. Burr had spoken at Cleveland, O., last week and later in New York city.

PROMINENT LAWYER CREMATED.

Home.

Meadville, Pa., Feb. 25.—Patrick C. Sheehan, aged forty-eight years, one the best known members of the Crawford county bar, was burned to death at his home in Conneautville. Sheehan went to the library of his home in his night robes. Apparently he was stricken with apoplexy and dropped a lighted lamp.

LOOTED OF BIG SUM

UNITED STATES SUBTREASURY
AT CHICAGO ROBBED OF ABOUT $200,000.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—The Tribune says the United States subtreasury at Chicago has been robbed of between $175,000 and $200,000. The robbery occurred some time last week, and there is no clue to the robbers.

MAKES THAW VERY UNEASY.

Report That Jerome Would Apply for Lunacy Commission.

New York, Feb. 25.—Clifford W. Hartridge, personal counsel to Harry K. Thaw, visited the prisoner at the Tombs and for an hour the two discussed various matters, among them, it was said, the possibility that the prosecution might seek to interrupt the cross-examination of the defendant's wife when Thaw's trial is resumed.

It had been reported, though without apparent authority that District Attorney Jerome would shift his attack on the defense and insist that the direct examination of Doctors Deeman and Bingaman, the alienists for the defense, be concluded before the state continued its cross-examination of Mrs. Thaw. This move would be construed as in the direction of an application for a lunacy commission to examine Thaw.

This report is said to have reached the prisoner and caused him no little uneasiness. Mr. Hartridge, however, was able to assure him that Mrs. Thaw's examination would be completed before the defense called other witnesses. Stipulation to this effect had been given, the lawyer said.

That Thaw's fears have some basis in fact was evidenced in a statement credited to a court official. According to this man, Mrs. William Thaw, mother of Harry, ten days ago approached the district attorney through friends and expressed her willingness that a commission in lunacy be appointed.

PANIC IN CHICAGO CHURCH.

Women and Children Injured in False
Fire Scare.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—More than a dozen women and children were injured, several of them seriously, in a fire scare in an Italian church here. Two hundred persons became frightened by escaping vapor from a radiator and rushed from the building. Most of the injured were trampled upon or cut by glass from a window which was demolished.

Victim of Thugs Dead.

Minneapolis, Feb. 25.—Chris Hansen of this city, who was struck down by highwaymen in the St. Paul road passenger yards here a week ago Saturday, died in the city hospital without regaining consciousness. Detectives have been baffled in their efforts to solve the mystery. While it is conceded that Hansen was the victim of thugs, the police have been unable to find any trace of the men who committed the crime.

WORK FOR CONGRESS

CLOSING WEEK OF THE SESSION PROMISES TO KEEP THE SOLONS BUSY.

SUPPLY BILLS TO THE FORE

NO OTHER BUSINESS WILL BE PERMITTED TO INTERFERE WITH THEM.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Aside from appropriation bills and conference reports the ship subsidy bill is the only measure of general importance that is likely to receive the attention of the house, and the Aldrich financial bill the only one that probably will receive the attention of the senate during this, the closing week of the last session of the Fifty-ninth congress. It is Senator Aldrich's purpose to press his bill for consideration whenever opportunity offers and he is still hopeful of success, notwithstanding the opposition, the congested condition of business and the limited time left. The house friends of ship subsidy also profess themselves as hopeful, but they admit that every day that goes by without action lessens their chances. Some of them express confidence in getting some features of the bill incorporated in the postoffice appropriation bill as a rider, but if they fall in that programme they will make a last effort for independent action by the house after the passage of the general deficiency bill. They will ask to have two or three days set aside for the consideration of the subsidy bill when conference reports are not before the house, and the inclination of the leaders is to grant this concession.

No other business will be permitted to interfere with appropriation bills and conference reports in either house, but there will be times when other business may be interjected and much miscellaneous legislation may be expected.

Will Facilitate Work of House.

An order will be brought into the house by the committee on rules early in the week making certain classes of legislation of a minor character in order at any time under a suspension of the rules and members generally hope to get a large number of bills passed under this order.

As usual the senate will make an effort to clean up the calendar and by the end of the week there will be few senate measures left to which there is not insuperable objection.

All of the appropriations except the general deficiency have passed the house but there are still five of these measures to receive first consideration at the hands of the senate. These are the agricultural bill, which is now under consideration; the postoffice bill, the pension bill, the sundry civil bill and the general deficiency bill.

It is expected that the consideration of the agricultural bill will be concluded Monday and it will be followed by the postoffice bill. The grazing and forest reserve propositions on the agricultural bill will receive some more attention and with those matters disposed of the senate will take up the Beveridge amendment regarding meat inspection and with that out of the way it is hoped that the bill will get through without any further controversy.

The only two appropriation bills that have been completely disposed of by congress are the legislative and the diplomatic bills. All the others that have been passed by both houses have still to be acted upon in conference and as the senate has not allowed any of them to get through without material additions, much spirited debate may be expected upon these reports. Both houses will materially prolong their sittings. They will begin earlier in the morning and night sessions will be the rule. All things considered, it will be a busy week.

FORTY OF THE CREW PERISHED.

But All Passengers on Steamer Imperatrix Were Saved

Canea, Island of Crete, Feb. 25.—All the passengers on board the Austrian Lloyd steamer Imperatrix, which ran on a rock Friday evening near Cape Elaphonisi, were saved, but forty members of the crew of whom thirty-two were Austrians and eight were Italians, perished.

Among the rescued are the captain, the doctor and the first engineer of the Imperatrix.

Foreign warships brought sixty-three survivors to this port and others were transferred to the Austrian Lloyd steamer Castore, which was sent from Trieste to assist in the work of rescue. Several persons who were injured at the time of the disaster are being attended here.

The vessel carried a valuable cargo of timber and sugar.

ELMA DARE ARRESTED.

Accused of Kidnapping Rich Man of Indianapolis.

Meadville, Pa., Feb. 25.—Elma Dare, charged with kidnapping George Rhodus, said to be feeble-minded, at Indianapolis on Jan. 21, and marrying him in Louisville, Ky., was arrested at the Todd sanitarium, Cambridge Springs, by Deputy Sheriff Paul Marshall. Rhodus was with the woman and the two were traced to Cambridge Springs by a detective employed by John W. Claypool of Indianapolis, attorney for the Rhodus estate. She will be brought to Meadville, where re-quisition will be made for her return to Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Feb. 25.—Elma Dare, arrested at Meadville, Pa., is the proprietor of a resort in the "tenderloin" district of Indianapolis. Rhodus is said to be afflicted with paralytic dementia. The woman, it is charged, took Rhodus from this city at midnight on Jan. 21 and was married to him at Louisville the next day. Since then their whereabouts have been a mystery. Rhodus is worth in the neighborhood of $600,000.

Attorneys representing the Rhodus estate had made vigorous efforts to locate the missing couple, but without avail. Rhodus' affairs were brought into court and a guardian was appointed for his estate, but this was contested by other attorneys claiming to represent the missing man. These attorneys produced a power of attorney from Rhodus assigning all of his property to a trust company. A warrant charging Elma Dare with kidnapping was issued soon after the couple left Indianapolis. It has been charged that a conspiracy was on hand to gain possession of Rhodus' fortune, he having no close relatives.

"It is the judgment of the Aero club, after giving careful thought to the matter," said Cortland Field Bishop, its president, the other day, "that an aeroplane to be worthy of serious consideration must be able to maneuver satisfactorily by flying in circles or in any given direction and back to the starting point. A straightaway flight is not enough to prove its scientific or commercial value, nor would a flight of less than thirty seconds amount to anything as a test. A speed of at least twenty-five miles an hour ought to be maintained, as otherwise such a machine would have little value."

"It has from the first been evident to the members of the Aero club that the future of aerial navigation lies in the development of aeroplanes. The limitations of ballooning are apparent to everybody who has studied this phase of the question. Even dirigible balloons cannot be greatly improved over their existing form, it appears, and it remains only to develop aeroplanes as being the only thing practical and having a commercial value."

"It is the intent of the Aero club to bring about a crisis in this matter of aeroplanes. If the Wright brothers should persist in maintaining their policy of silence and refusal to give a public demonstration of their invention we must look to other inventors, of whom there must be many who are on the right road to success."

"We have been fairly inundated with letters from experimenters who believe they have all but won success. Many of the letters show illiteracy, but some of them appear to have been written by men of education and intelligence. Somewhere in this mass of material must be the truth we seek."

"It is a regrettable fact that the claims of the Wright brothers are generally discredited abroad, but the members of the Aero club have great faith in them and confidence that they have accomplished all the results credited to them by their friends in Dayton. We sympathize with them thoroughly in their present difficulties. They certainly have a right to receive remuneration for the time and money they have spent and the tremendous risks they have run, and it is a fact that the Aero club is now at work on a plan to give them a reward commensurate with their deserts."

"At the same time no money will be put into any idle scheme. The success of such an invention must be assured beyond any reasonable doubt. On this point there is an interesting report that within the last year the Wrights gave a successful demonstration of their flying machine within fifty miles of New York for the benefit of a New York capitalist, but I cannot vouch for the correctness of the report."

"It is within the realms of possibility that such a demonstration will be given, at any rate, to a limited number of men in the near future. It would be provided that none of these witnesses shall have any technical knowledge, so that there may be no risk of the Wrights losing their secret, but the committee would be composed of men whose reliability is unquestioned and whose names would carry weight in all parts of the world. The doubt which still surrounds the achievements of the Wrights in some quarters would by this means be eliminated if they proved the success of their machine, and they would be everywhere given due credit for having solved a problem which has baffled man for so many centuries."

Some people call coughing barking. I see no reason why they should do either one or the other and they never would if they would only get a bottle of Skauge's never cough, a medicine which never fails to break up the worst cold going. No cure, no pay. Skauge the Laurel street druggist guarantees it.

Chas S. Salisbury, business manager of the "Red Feather" company, was in the city today. Some people call coughing barking. I see no reason why they should do either one or the other and they never would if they would only get a bottle of Skauge's never cough, a medicine which never fails to break up the worst cold going. No cure, no pay. Skauge the Laurel street druggist guarantees it.

Chas S. Salisbury, business manager of the "Red Feather" company, was in the city today. This company is one of the largest if not the largest opera company that has ever visited Brainerd and travels in two special coaches with two baggage cars of scenery. DECISION IN KOOCHICHING CASE

Judge McClenahan Today Filed Decision in Koochiching County Case

THE APPLICATION IS DENIED

Decision Will Probably beAppealed to Supreme Court by Itasca Parties

Judge McClenahan today handed down his decision in the so-called Koochiching county case. This was brought by an individual resident of Itasca county through an order to compel the officers of the new county to show cause why they should not be ousted from their offices and the organization of the county declared void. The relators asked permission to file the petition in the district court because the attorney general had refused to take part in the proceedings. Permission to file information was refused and the order to show cause was dissolved.

In making this decision one of the principal reasons given by the judge was that the attorney general had refused to take action in the matter. Judge McClenahan held that if the attack was on the legality of the county itself, then under the laws of Minnesota the attorney general must be an active participant in the case. If, as alleged by the relators, it was merely an attack on the right of the men to hold the offices, not on the legality of the offices themselves, the matter is in the discretion of the judge.

That portion of the case involving the legality of the action of the governor of the state in submitting only one of the three propositions to the people was not taken into consideration in any manner whatsoever.

Judge McClenahan states that it is his understanding that, however the decision might have been, it was the intention of whichever party lost to appeal to the supreme court.

HELD GOOD MEETING

Christian Citizenship Meeting at the Methodist Church Last Night was Enthusiastic and well Attended

The Methodist church contained a full audience last evening with the male element largely predominating to hear what the different speakers had to say on the various phases of "Civic Righteousness."

The church was handsomely decorated with national colors and the newly organized choir with orchestral accompaniment rendered national songs with excellent spirit, several times the audience joining in the chorus of the well known hymns.

"What is Christian Citizenship?" was discussed by James H. Noble and was handled in an extremely logical manner. "Citizenship," said Mr. Noble, "is the privilege of an American enjoying his rights and privileges and taking part in legislative and judicial deliberations. Certain civic privileges are ours. Add to this the essence of the teaching of Christ as it relates to those who serve Him as disciples, a Christian citizen is the man who sees to it that he votes as he prays. That he sees to it that laws which have been enacted in accordance with Christ's truth and the nation's welfare, are enforced."

Secretary C. E. Holmes, of the Y. M. C. A. spoke earnestly of the worth of the society he represented in making good citizens. Facts and statistics were quoted to prove his arguments. "No man can be so blind to the logic of facts to doubt the worth of the Y. M. C. A. to any community," said he. "Our aim is to bring young manhood under Christianizing influences, and we work along educational, ethical, physical and moral lines. If the Y. M. C. A. was nothing more than a mere club to entertain young men, I would quit the association tomorrow."

Christian Bruhn in his address "Christ as a Patriot and Christian," spoke thoughtfully of the Christ as a patriot, "While Christ loved the entire world," said Mr. Bruhn, "he stands out to the world as one of the greatest patriots the Jewish race ever had. The great prophets who preceded him were ever interested in the political, civil and religious welfare of the Jewish people. He loved his nation much. He wept over the coming destruction of Jerusalem, and prophesied its doom. He cleansed the temple and tried to awaken a deep sense of patriotism in all around him. He stands today an example for all time. Patriotism is the hand-maid of a pure Christianity."

Walter J. Smith spoke on "The Enforcement of the Law," and appeared in the pulpit with a law book in his hand, and read to the large audience the laws of the state pertaining to gambling, Sabbath desecration and other things pertaining to specific laws against certain forms of lawlessness. "Sometime ago," said Mr. Smith, "to convince myself that what I had heard was true, I went one afternoon into one of the pool rooms of this city of Brainerd, and saw with my own eyes young men, many of them under 21 years of age, playing billiards." Mr. Smith then read the penalty of the law along this line. "What we want in this city, and what is coming, if I read the signs of the times aright, is such a spirit of patriotism that shall go after those who not only break the laws, but those who are in office and fail to enforce them. God hasten the time!"

Rev. Charles Fox Davis spoke on "The Relation of Law to Morals and the Rights of the Law Abiding Element." Mr. Davis briefly stated what law is, its divisions, according to a law lexicon, passing to its relation to moral law and American patriotism. "Laws are the pillars of human society," declared Mr. Davis, "break them, remove them, let them go unheeded, and down goes the nation. Nations have never risen higher than their respect for the majesty and dignity of law. What American society needs is a toning up along this line. Votes alone are the only forces that count when it comes to settling matters of civic pride. In some people the virus of lawlessness runs very deep. We have an excellent city and many public spirited citizens interested in its material and moral welfare. God give us more of them. My appreciation for every man, be he citizen or official, whose regard for the law keeps him from breaking it and in whose heart the spirit of patriotism rises into indignation when he sees the laws of the land broken or not enforced."

The Order of Railway Conductors gave their first annual ball at the Villard hotel, Monday evening. About 200 couples were in attendance, many people from Duluth, Fargo, St. Paul and other points along the line being present. It was soon found that the crowd of merry souls could not be confined within even the spacious walls of the Villard, and an adjournment was had to the rink, which was soon made quite comfortable and pleasant. The music was furnished by Prof. Dressell and it was never better.

Charles Emmerson and Miss Mary C. Hawkins were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hawkins, in East Brainerd, Tuesday, February 22, 1887. A reception took place in the evening.

Brainerd was in the throes of a municipal campaign. The candidates for mayor were C. L. Spaulding and Capt. C. B. Sleeper. For treasurer J. C. Foote, N. McFadden, P. M. Lagerquist, Fred Stanley and Harry Withrow were in the field. For municipal judge, W. A. Fleming had no opposition. For alderman, W. S. Seales in the First ward and H. J. Spencer in the Second had no opposition. In the Third ward S. P. Fleming,

Dedicatory Services at the First Baptist Church Sunday

Were Well Attended

SERVICES WERE IMPRESSIVE

Powerful Sermons were Preached at Both Morning and Evening Services

The new First Baptist church building was crowded to its doors Sunday morning by people who came to see and assist in the consecration of the building. The church was seated to its full capacity and many stood through the entire services. The dedicatory services were very impressive and the sermon by Rev. Dr. A. T. Fowler is said to have been one of the most powerful ever preached in Brainerd. At this meeting a collection was taken for the benefit of the building fund of the church and there was over $1,000 received in cash and pledges.

Dr. Fowler addressed the children of the Sunday school which was held immediately after the morning service. In the afternoon he addressed a meeting of the young people and delivered a very helpful address.

The pastor and the people feel much gratified over the completion and dedication of their place of worship and propose to go ahead with the good work of the church.

Francis Vanasse, aged 59 years and living seven miles south of Brainerd, died of consumption Sunday. The remains were buried in Evergreen cemetery on Tuesday.

By some means the vault in the county treasurer's office was locked Wednesday night with the combination inside, and all efforts to open it proved fruitless. Nothing but the books and records are kept in this vault, and it has been the custom to turn the lock a little either way, enough to throw the tumblers of so the combination did not have to be used, and when it was necessary every one who had the figures had forgotten them.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a flower which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. Few young women appreciate the shock of the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. More than a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and make its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine, nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Bad Symptoms. The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weaknesses and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional endorsement of each of its several ingredients—worth more than any number of ordinary non-professional testimonials.

harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as complete and correct.

In any condition of the female system Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of the "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Doctor's All Agree. The most eminent writers on Materia Medica, whose works are consulted as authorities by physicians of all the different schools of practice, extol, in the most positive terms, the curative virtues of each and every ingredient entering into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In fact it is the only medicine, put up for sale through druggists for the cure of all diseases of the mucous surfaces, as nasal catarrh, throat, laryngeal, and bronchial affections attended by lingering, or hang-on-coughs that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any amount of lay or non-professional testimonials.

Do not expect too much from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It will not work miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. Nor is the "Discovery" so good for a sudden attack of acute cough, but for the lingering, obstinate, hang-on-coughs, accompanying catarrhal, throat, laryngeal and bronchial affections, it is a most efficacious remedy. In cases accompanied with wasting of flesh, night-sweats, weak stomach and poor digestion with faulty assimilation, and which, if neglected or badly treated, are apt to lead to consumption, the "Discovery" has proven wonderfully successful in effecting cures.

The formula is printed on every wrapper of "Golden Medical Discovery," attested as to correctness under oath, and you can't afford to accept any substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret remedy no matter what selfish interests may prompt the dealer to urge such upon you. In fact it is an insult to your intelligence for him to do so. You know what you want and it is his place to supply that want.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. They cleanse, invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels, curing biliousness and constipation. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

BRIEF VISIT IS ENDED

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT RETURNING TO WASHINGTON FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

PREACHES SERMON TO BOYS
DELIVERS SHORT ADDRESS TO THE GROTON STUDENTS AND THEIR PARENTS.

Boston, Feb. 24.—President Roosevelt, who arrived here Saturday on an unofficial visit with members of his family, departed for Washington at night in a special car attached to the Federal express.

As the train moved out of the South terminal at 8:02 o'clock the crowd that had assembled cheered heartily and the president acknowledged the demonstration by waving his arms and bowing. Mr. Roosevelt seemed in a jovial mood and, indeed, he had shown great delight in the meetings at Harvard and with old Massachusetts friends during his two days' visit.

The president devoted Sunday to a trip to Groton, which is forty miles from Boston, where his son Kermit is a pupil at the Groton preparatory school. Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel Roosevelt were already there and the president was accompanied by his eldest daughter, the wife of Congressman Longworth.

President Roosevelt was the guest of Dr. William Sturgis Bigelow, and he breakfasted there with a few personal friends. These included Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., George H. Lyman, collector of the port of Boston; Judge Francis C. Lowell of the United States circuit court, and Major W. Austin Wadsworth, who was formerly a staff officer in the Philippine islands. The early morning was spent at the Bigelow home, and about 10:30 o'clock the president was driven to the North terminal, where a special train was waiting to take him to Groton. Several hundred people were grouped along the approaches to the tracks when the president appeared and he was given a cordial greeting as he passed through the station to his car. Mrs. Longworth arrived before her father and greeted the president from the special car, which, with two coaches, made up the train.

Threw a Flag at the President.

Just as the train was moving slowly out a middle-aged man ran quickly down the platform behind the president's car and when he reached within a few feet of it deliberately threw what looked like a paper parcel toward the president. One of the detectives tried to ward off the article before it struck the car, but it landed safely, though harmlessly. The missile proved to be a silk flag, enclosed in a paper bag, the gift of an admirer.

The train reached Ayre Junction shortly before noon. A teacher at the Groton school was waiting with a big six-seated Russian sleigh, drawn by two fast horses, and as the sleighing was excellent the president and his daughter had a delightful drive of about three miles to the school. At the house of Professor William A. Gardner the visitors were received by Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel, who had remained there over night, by Kermit Roosevelt and the Rev. Endicott Peabody, the principal of the school.

After dinner the party went to the "Hundred House," where the president was introduced to an audience made up of 150 students and parents and friends of the pupils. The president gave what he was pleased to call "a short sermon to the boys."

Disregarded Advice of Friends.

Among other things Mr. Roosevelt said that when he finished his college course his friends him not to enter the governing class, as it consisted mostly of an undesirable type of persons, but he had told them that he had fully made up his mind to take part in the work of government. He resolved, also, he said, to enter the cavalry service so that in case of trouble he could do his own fighting and not depend on others to do that for him.

So accustomed has the doctor become to going bareheaded that he never misses his hat and never for one moment does he feel any discomfort. On a recent night, while a snowstorm was at its height and while the wind was blowing a gale, he was out in the open for several hours, and at no time was he cold and discommoded in the least. One would expect that after such exposure Dr. Shearer's hair would show signs of the hard usage it has evidently undergone, but one glance at him dispels any such idea. His brown hair is as glossy and soft as if protected carefully every day from the slightest zephyr, and there is no evidence of more than ordinary brushing to keep it laying as smoothly as it does when he is moving around in the drawing rooms of the members of Baltimore's Four Hundred, where he is to be found nearly every night during the social season.

PLEASE FOR COCK FIGHTS.

Cubans Want Wood's Order Prohibiting Them Revoked.

Havana, Feb. 25.—A procession headed by Ex-Senator Monteaude and composed of 500 horsemen, many carriages and bands of music, paraded the streets, halting in front of the palace where the bands played patriotic airs amid cheering. Governor Magoon, in response to cries of "long live Governor Magoon," reviewed the gathering from a balcony of the palace and afterwards received a committee, which presented a petition signed by thousands of persons in Havana and other cities requesting the abrogation of the military order of General Leonard Wood prohibiting cock fights. Governor Magoon promised to give the matter careful consideration, after which the gathering dispersed.

Fire in Wholesale House.

Elmira, N. Y., Feb. 25.—Fire at night in Gerity Bros.' wholesale drug house did damage to stock and building to the amount of $75,000.

NOBODY SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Philadelphia Express Runs Into an Open Switch.

Pittsburg, Feb. 25.—The Philadelphia express on the Pennsylvania railroad, due to arrive here at 6:35 p. m. ran into an open switch in the yards at Sixteenth street about 7 o'clock p. m.

The ambulances from the Western Pennsylvania and Allegheny general hospitals were hurriedly summoned to the union station but, according to the railroad officials and hospital physicians, no one was injured.

The New York express, due here at 7 o'clock, narrowly escaped running into the Philadelphia train and caused a panic among the already frightened passengers.

One coach on the Philadelphia train was telescoped and two others derailed. The train was late and was running faster than usual through the yards.

Although the accident occurred almost in the heart of the city it was some time before it became known. The first report said a number of passengers had been seriously injured and many newspaper reporters were rushed to the Sixteenth street yards.

It was learned later that five women passengers on the Philadelphia express had been slightly injured. They were given medical attention by the hospital and railroad physicians and later continued their journey.

Brother of Senator Dolliver Dead.

Fort Dodge, Ia., Feb. 25.—Victor R. Dolliver, forty-six years old, a brother of Senator Dolliver of Iowa, was found dead in bed in the evening. Dolliver went to bed apparently in good health. He was found lying on the bed as though he had died while asleep. Dolliver was known as a campaign orator, a business man and benefactor of Morning Side college of Sioux City.

The Leather Industry.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The leather industry contributed $150,000,000 to the foreign commerce of the United States in the year 1906, against less than $55,000,000 a decade earlier. These figures combine imports and exports of leather and its manufactures and imports and exports of hides and skins, all of which showed rapid growth during the decade.

Fatal Fight at a Roadhouse.

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 25.—Christopher Hughes of this city was shot and killed by Joseph Ambrose, an Italian, in a roadhouse in Old Forge, near here. At the time of the shooting Hughes, two male companions and three women were in a room drinking. Ambrose forced the door and in the fight which followed Hughes was shot Ambrose escaped.

Break Under Control.

New Orleans, Feb. 25.—Control has been secured over the dangerous crevasses near Jesuits Bend, the state engineers succeeding in "tying in" the ends of the broken levees so that the breach did not widen. It was announced that should the situation become threatening the crevasses can be closed, although at great cost.
